

DFEH

Special Update

NEW PREGNANCY & BONDING LEAVE APP

Introducing DFEH's new interactive tool for getting tailored guidance on Californians' right to job-protected leave either to bond with a new child or for a pregnancy-related disability.

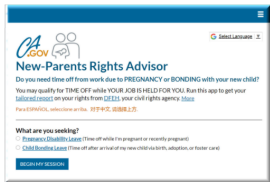

California deploys smart app that guides new parents on right to leave from work

Posted: 22 March 2021 By Neota Logic

Partnership among California, UCI Law, and Neota Logic provides tailored guidance to citizens

DFEH CA - March 22, 2021 - California has provided job-protected leave to bond with a new child from childbirth, adoption, or foster care. Starting in 2021, both forms of leave apply to California employees with just 5 or more employees.

DFEH partners with students at the University of California, Irvine School of law and, technology provider, Neota Logic to create an interactive app
View Press Release

March 23, 2021

Check out DFEH's toolkit for employers and employees regarding the expansion of the California Family Rights Act (CFRA) in 2021 and other forms of job-protected leave. The toolkit includes multi-lingual factsheets, required posters, certification forms, and other useful resources.

